Check Out: My Buffalo Shirts

2009 October 13

by Don Burtless

If you are like me, you have noticed that Buffalo based clothing companies are becoming a big trend in this city (note the sidebar full of clothing links). What's better then wearing your Buffalo Pride and supporting a Buffaloian at the same time?

My friend Adam has been running his clothing company for over a year now and designs some awesome shirts that every Buffalo sports fan would want. On his website My Buffalo Shirts they offer tee shirts that pay homage to Buffalo Hockey and Buffalo Lacrosse and coming soon they will have be offering a Buffalo Football shirt (see below for a tease).

Unlike several other clothing companies, Adam uses discharge ink on all of his shirts. What that means is he spends a couple extra bucks so that the ink is actually embedded into the shirt, instead of laying it on top of the shirt (which can lead to cracking, fading). To get an idea, think of how bleaching works. Except his process isn't harsh to the fabric. Needless to say, the shirts that you are ordering are top notch quality.

Soon to be revealed: Buffalo Football logo

Right now, for a limited time, if you order either the Hockey shirt or Lacrosse shirt you'll receive a free MBS Logo shirt, a $20 value! To get the free shirt, simply add the MBS logo shirt to the shopping cart (along with the other shirt) and enter the code MYBUFFALO. So head over to the website for the free T shirt, or visit Bay-6 where you can purchase them as well (however you will not get the free Logo T Shirt).
